Weekly Newsletter: Friday 8th November 2024

Littlegreen Academy's Vision

Our vision is that all pupils at Littlegreen Academy will grow to be confident adults who communicate well, so that they can live healthy, happy, and successful lives.

The foundation of all our endeavours in everything we do.

Class of the Week: Bignor Class

In keeping with the theme of the week, Bignor class have started this year with a BANG!

Pupils have adapted well to life in Key Stage 4 and are enjoying the variety of challenges that it brings.

They are having more asked of them in English and Maths lessons, in addition to stepping outside of their comfort zones across the rest of the curriculum.

Whilst Year 11 seems like a long way off for our Bignor pupils, we have already started to look further into the accreditations that are on offer towards the end of their Littlegreen journey.

Since starting back in September, they have been attending college twice a week and have settled in really well, with some great feedback coming from their college tutors.

Whilst at college, pupils have been tasked with independent study in the open access area, where they have been given a variety of task's linked to their History accreditation and their AQA Preparation for Adulthood.

Forthcoming Events

12th November- Odd Socks Day (Kindness Week)

15th November- Children in Need (Crazy Hair Day)

18th November- Inset Day

21st November- Parents Evening

29th November- Tree Decorating

Subject of the Week: English

This week we have been celebrating pupils independent writing with a spooky, haunted, creepy, chilling, ghostly, frightening, dark theme.

Pupils have been writing their own horror stories, using abandoned houses for inspiration, reading scary stories and creating ghoulish characters.

Hayden RS: 'An Unusual Day in Green Hill', chapter 1: The start of Chaos and Madness.

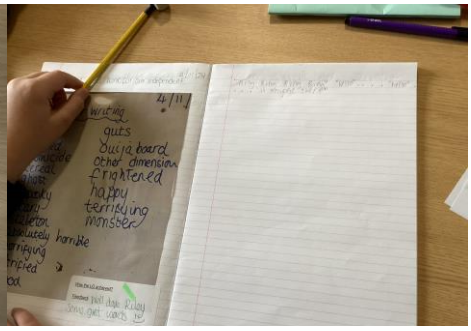
Leo L's story hooks readers in; 'One dark, stormy Halloween night . . .. '

Tyler and Alfie N have worked together on a newspaper report: 'Two kids on a Murder Spree while Trick or Treating'.

Riley S wrote several mini horror stories: All my life my parents told me not to open the basement . . .

Bobby C's spine-chilling story: 'Under the Bed'. . . . .and there were glowing eyes . . ..

We cannot wait for these pieces of writing to be finished so that we can get them published.



Value of the Week

Jack from Butser class has been accepting of his abilities with his Maths work.

Lenny from Butser class has been accepting of help with his writing.

Boris from Kingley class is always accepting of the decisions of adults.

Harry from Harting class has been accepting of his new class and routine.

Bobbey-John from Oak class has been so accepting of adult advice and trying really hard to be kind to everyone.

Bobby from Willow class has been accepting advice to improve his behaviour.

epraise

Congratulations to our top point scorers of the week:

Finley from Willow class for lower school

Riley from Beacon class for upper school